THE WHANN GROUP

POWERED BY  iComplyPro

TruckSuite leverages The Whann Group's robust iComply Pro technology platform to deliver best-in-class products and services to the commercial trucking industry. Information, including video and audio streaming, can be presented in a live connected session to a trucker on their phone. Once finished, the presentation materials along with any related transactional documents are all date and time stamped and delivered to the trucker and uploaded to the server.

The platform's features include: information delivery and training functionality, point of sale presentations, ability to engage in e-commerce transactions, third party portal integration, Virtual F&I and the Live Concierge.

Helping to keep our supply chain moving: We're here when you need us most!
