Two men are seated at a table covered with a black cloth, conducting a radio broadcast. The man on the left is wearing a black jacket and is speaking into a microphone. The man on the right is wearing a black jacket, a plaid cap, and glasses, and is listening intently. The table is equipped with two microphones on stands, a laptop, a coffee cup, and a small electronic device. A red lanyard with 'CONVOY.COM' is draped over the chair in the foreground. The background features a large window with an 'EXIT' sign, a framed abstract painting, and a decorative arrangement of tall, thin, light-colored branches with yellow flowers.
